

COLLECTING STUDENT DATA TO INFORM SHS PROGRAMS

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2016 | 1:00 PM EST

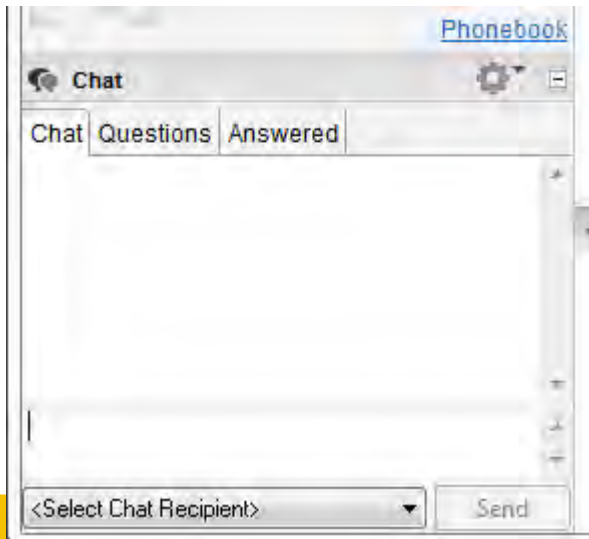

DISCLAIMER

This resource is supported by Cooperative Agreement 5U87PS004223-02, funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention or the Department of Health and Human Services.

LOGISTICS

Please use the chat feature throughout the webinar to type any immediate questions that are coming up. We will be sure to address all of them either ON the webinar, or through the chat feature.

MEET THE PRESENTERS

Sara Stahlberg

Senior Program Manager, Adolescent Sexual Health
National Coalition of STD Directors (NCSDD)

Carlos Romero

President and Founder
Apex National Technology Center

AGENDA

- Learning Objectives
- Setting the Context
- just:health Presentation and Demo
- Questions / Discussion

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Identify at least two reasons why broad-based risk screening for adolescents in primary care settings and school-based settings is vital for STD education, prevention, detection, and treatment.
- Identify at least two principles to distinguish between effective uses of technology omnibet and ineffective uses of technology in a health care setting
- Identify at least two ways a tool like just:health can address stigma around sexual health for students
- Identify at least two ways in which a tool like just:health can address stigma around sexual health for providers
- Identify at least two ways in which a tool like just:health can inform population-level health promotion and program management

ABOUT NNPTC

National Network of STD Clinical Prevention Training Centers