

DISEASE INTERVENTION SPECIALIST TRAININGS

AVAILABLE ON NNDITC WEBSITE

The National Network of Disease Intervention Training Centers (NNDITC) website is up and running! NNDITC supports the Disease Intervention Specialist (DIS) community by providing a network of training centers, including knowledge-based online training, skills-based training, and four regional training centers.

Training resources, including Passport to Partner Service, and other courses on CDC TRAIN, remain available to HIV/STD programs for DIS training until the new fundamentals course is launched. These courses, listed below, are easily accessible through our website. Stay tuned for new courses coming soon and visit nationalDITC.org.

Below are links to specific training that can be found on the website now.
